DISLOYAL EMPLOYEES? UNTRUSTWORTHY PARTNERS?

What would you do if an employee sold trade secrets or shared acquisition plans without your knowledge? How damaging would the fallout be? And what if you could stop the damage before it happened?

Fortunately, there is a way to stay a step ahead, a way to be assured of employee loyalty, or to know quickly of costly employee disloyalty (and to prove it in court). We call this service FORENSIC DataTRACK™.

THE CORPORATE SOLUTION

With FORENSIC DataTRACK™, we take proactive steps to monitor, detect, and forensically document any data impropriety perpetrated by an employee. This keeps you safe, especially if you're planning any major product launches, mergers, or other sensitive activities.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Doctors have known this truth for centuries, and business owners like you know it too. It's far easier – and less costly – to deal with a breach in information security before the damage is done. Fortunately, there is a way to stay a step ahead – a way to be assured of employee loyalty, or to know quickly of costly employee disloyalty (and to prove it in court). We call this service FORENSIC Data-TRACK™.
